- Next week we will start a new lunch line rule. As you all know we have traditionally allowed the seniors to eat first, then juniors, and on down the line. Starting next week the class with the lowest percentage of D's, and F's will eat first, then the next lowest, and so on. These percentages are calculated by me, with the same grade list used for eligibility. I will post the order in the lunch room each Monday. If you have any concerns about this please come see me. Thank you. Go Mohawks!!!! - Mr. Marx
- Anyone interested in the Spring Trap Shooting team, please stop by the h.s. office to sign up.
- HS students- This should go without saying by the time you reach 9th-12th grade- Please take home your stinky gym clothes. The HS Hall is starting to smell like the locker rooms. :)
